UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY AND APPLIED SCIENCES - IBRA

LEVEL 3. VOCABULARY. UNIT5, LESSON B

emotions	long-term	short-term	function	romantic similar	concentrate	psychological	security	attachment

Children's first years at school have a big impact on their future lives. Young children usually feel a very strong 1. _____ to their teachers. The experiences that they have at school remain in their 2. _____ memories. Bad experiences at school like bullying and scolding may cause many 3. _____ problems because they can make children feel timid and insecure. Teachers should provide a sense of 4. _____ to the children so that they can be free to talk about their problems freely. Teachers should also be able to understand the children's 5. _____ because they are very sensitive. The 6. _____ of the schools is not only to teach, but they are also responsible for the overall development of the children. Our aim should not be to get only 7. _____ benefits like passing the tests. Children usually make friends with others who have 8. _____ interests as theirs. This helps them to 9. _____ on the skills that they have develop them with the help of their friends. Most people have very 10. _____ feelings about their first schools because the friendships that they make there often lasts a lifetime.

(BIJU C THOMAS)

LIVEWORKSHEETS