

Summary

People wear all kinds of clothes.

When it is cold they wear hats and mittens.

When it is hot they wear shorts.

When it rains they wear boots.

People need different clothes for different kinds of weather.

1. How do you dress when it is hot?

2. How do you dress when it rains?

3. How do you dress when it is cold?

4. Which sentence tells the most important parts.

A. People wear boots when there is snow outside.

B. People wear different clothes in hot and cold weather.