Hi Emily,

I'm sending you some changes to the design for the Hotel Of The Future project. I'm not very good at drawing (it's my ¹ worst skill, I think), but hopefully we'll get a ² mark than last term. So, the ³ rooms now cost $300 a night. Obviously they have the ⁴ views. I've added another spa. This one is ⁵ the other one, but it's ⁶ with all the wood and the candles. What else? The 'sky pool' is ⁷, so more people can swim now. The building is just ⁸ before; I haven't added any more floors. What else? Oh, I changed the material to glass. This way I think it'll look ⁹, perfect for next century. Let me know what you think!

Speak soon,
Brandon
