

Exercise 6

In IELTS Speaking Part 3 it's important to express your opinions. Read the examiner's questions and the student's answers, looking in particular at the words in italics.

Then watch the video and decide if the student's opinions are positive, negative or if he's not sure.

1. Examiner: Let's consider, first of all, sources of news. Tell me, what kind of news stories interest young people in your country? Student: Erm ... it's hard because every person has a different taste. ... ☐ Positive ☐ Negative ☐ not sure 2. Examiner: What about news stories about politicians or sportspeople? Student: Yeah, they like to read about it, too ... ☐ Positive ☐ Negative ☐ not sure 3. Examiner: Do you think more people read about sport than about politics? Student: In my country? I would say fifty-fifty ... ☐ Positive ☐ Negative ☐ not sure 4. Examiner: What differences are there between news reporting on television and in newspapers? Student: Television is more exciting than newspapers, actually ... ☐ Positive ☐ Negative ☐ not sure 5. Examiner: Do many people buy newspapers in your country? Student: No, not any more.
