

Exercise 4

Read the information. Then read the sentences in bold. Put the words in the correct order to complete the more complex sentences.

It is important to use clear, grammatically accurate sentences so that the examiner understands the different ideas you are talking about. In addition, it is a good idea to use more complex grammatical structures and vocabulary to improve your Grammatical Range and Accuracy and Lexical Resource marks.

I'm about is talk the going person to Brian Smith

1. I'm going to talk about Brian Smith.

Of his novels are favourite among two of all time
my

2. I really like two of his novels.

Of my novels has he to the best published seven knowledge

3. I think he has published seven novels.

Greatly admired an his work from have I early age

4. I've liked his work since I was young.

Work his I to believe greatest it be

5. I think it's his best work.

Have read page-turners all the I book of his are real

6. The books I've read of his are very good
