Extra Training

Vocabulary Task 2166

Choose the correct item.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

When you buy a television, radio or cassette recorder, make sure it has a long enough 1_____ to reach the mains.

2_____ it in at the most convenient 3_____ in your room, and then 4_____ the appliance on.

You should normally 5_____ the volume by turning a/an 6_____, and there are other 7_____ as well to get the best sound or video resolution.

It is probably best to 8_____ the appliance when it is not in use and you leave the house for a long time.

If you have any troubles with electricity in the house, ask a/an 9_____ to look into the problem. But if the appliance breaks during the warranty period, take it back to the 10_____ you bought it from.

LIVEWORKSHEETS