

1. Complete the sentences with the preposition:

- a) You will be entitled ___ your pension when you reach 65.
- b) She is very sensitive ___ other people's feelings.
- c) He's gone from success to success in his movie career, and there's no sign of him slacking ___.
- d) Raw meat must be kept separate _____ cooked meat.
- e) They will deal _____ the situation.
- f) My results will lead ___ future research on the topic.
- g) I must insist ___ following this rule.
- h) I approve ___ the idea.

2. Complete the sentences with the word. Definition is provided in brackets.

- i) His articles provided the main _m_e_u_ for change. (=stimulus, sth that encourages the development of sth)
- j) The artist had _e_i_t_d her lying on a bed. (=presented)
- k) The first part of the plan has been safely _c_o_p_i__ed. (=achieved)
- l) She _q_a__e_ed her chances of winning. (=to waste in a stupid way)
- m) Such action may have _i_e consequences. (=very serious)
- n) His apartment was small, _l__t__red and dirty. (=full of things)
- o) An inquiry was set up to _e_e__ine the cause of the accident. (=to discover the facts about sth)
- p) I felt _w__a_d because they obviously wanted to be alone. (=making you feel embarrassed)
- q) This recipe is _oo__r_o_—it works every time. (=infallible, very well designed)