

Exercise 5

In the next exercise you will hear two students preparing for a seminar presentation on the topic of 'recognising why and when people tell lies'.

Match the words in the box with the correct definitions.

body language	detect	dishonest	fake	lie	pretend	psychologist
survey

1. behaving in a way that is not truthful: _____
2. to behave like something is true when you know that it's not:

3. someone who studies the human mind and human emotions and behaviour:

4. something that is not real: _____
5. the movements or position of your body that show other people how you are feeling: _____
6. to say or write something that is not true: _____
7. to notice or discover something, usually by using a special method:

8. a study of opinions or behaviour by asking people questions:
