

Exercise 5

In the next exercise you will hear two students preparing for a seminar presentation on the topic of 'recognising why and when people tell lies'.

Match the words in the box with the correct definitions.

| | | | | | | |
|---------------|--------|-----------|------|-----|---------|--------------|
| body language | detect | dishonest | fake | lie | pretend | psychologist |
| survey | | | | | | |

1. behaving in a way that is not truthful: _____
2. to behave like something is true when you know that it's not: _____
3. someone who studies the human mind and human emotions and behaviour: _____
4. something that is not real: _____
5. the movements or position of your body that show other people how you are feeling: _____
6. to say or write something that is not true: _____
7. to notice or discover something, usually by using a special method: _____
8. a study of opinions or behaviour by asking people questions: _____