a. Look entirely human on land, save for their piercing gaze, and only become mermaid-like underwater.

b. He is a gorgon and wears a hat so he doesn't turn any unsuspecting people to stone.

c. He has the ability to move objects and people with his mind at will.

d. She has visions. They usually come when she touches an important item or person, and her visions often deal with glimpses of the past.

e. Unlike her more ferocious counterparts, she has yet to "wolf out," as she calls it, so she can't fully turn into a furry and vicious creature.

f. he has the power to animate his drawings and paintings into the real world—kind of like a 3-D printer power
