"Collocation" refers to the way that words form predictable relationships with other words. Look at the alternative adjectives (a–h) and ~~cross out~~ the adjective which does not form a strong collocation with the noun. Use your dictionary if necessary.

a designer / ~~brand~~ clothes b shiny / bright eyes c round / circular face d spiky / pointy hair e strong / firm handshake f charming / fair manner g heated / warm smile h profound / deep voice

Match the nouns from Exercise 1 with the adjectives below to make additional strong collocations.

a hearty / limp _handshake_ b expressive / impassive _____ c fake / forced _____ d close-set / staring _____ e sleek / tousled _____ f husky / shrill _____ g old-fashioned / scruffy _____ h abrasive / mild _____
