Some things You Should Never Do during Chinese New Year

Chinese people believe what you do at the start of a new year will affect (影響) your luck in the coming year. There are some things you shouldn't do during the Chinese New Year. The first thing you should pay attention to (注意) is your words. Words with negative (负面) meaning should be avoided (避免) in daily conversation, such as death, ghost, killing, sickness, and poverty (貧窮). Second, do not sweep (打掃) or take out garbage on the first day of the new year; if you do so, you will sweep away your luck or wealth (財富) in the coming new year. Moreover, breaking dishes is also believed to bring bad luck to the family. So if you break a dish, the remedy (補救方法) is to say, "Sui Sui Ping An," which means safe and sound every year. Now it's your turn to share what you shouldn't or should do during Chinese New Year.

1. ( ) You should clean up your room at the first day of Chinese New Year.
2. ( ) We shouldn't say any bad words during Chinese New Year.
3. ( ) It's all right to break any things because that will us good luck.
4. ( ) There are some things we should do and shouldn't do during Chinese New Year.
5. Write one thing you should or shouldn't say or do during Chinese New Year.
