

PETER'S TOYS

Read the story and complete the sentences. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

It was Thursday morning. Peter opened his eyes and sat up in bed. "It's my birthday. I'm ten today," he said to his favorite bear. He looked at his old toys in the cupboard opposite his bed. "I don't need those toys now," he said. His mother came into his room with some presents. "Happy Birthday, Peter!" "I don't want to go out," Peter said. "I'm ten now. I must put my old toys in the basement."

"OK," said his mother quietly.

1. Peter's birthday was on _____.
2. Peter talked to his favorite _____.
3. Peter's old toys were in a cupboard which was _____ his bed.
4. Peter wanted to take his toys downstairs to the _____.

After breakfast, they found three boxes which they carried upstairs. Peter's mum picked up his toy train and put it in the first box. "No," said Peter. "I like playing with that sometimes." Then she put Peter's kangaroo very carefully in the second box. "No," said Peter. "I like his face. He's always smiling.

5. Peter and his mother carried _____ upstairs.
6. The first toy that Mum picked up was Peter's _____.
7. The kangaroo went in the _____ box.
8. Peter liked the kangaroo's happy _____.

Peter's mum put his kite in the third box. "No," said Peter. "Dad and I play with that in the park sometimes." "Dad's toy cars are under our bed, Peter, and he's a lot older than you. You don't need these boxes," said Mum. "How about going to the zoo?" Peter laughed. "Oh, yes!" he said "Let's go!"

9. Peter and his father play in _____ with Peter's kite sometimes.
10. Peter's father's _____ were under the bed.
11. In the end, Peter wanted to go to _____ with his mum.

