

9.1 Crime

1 Underline the correct alternatives.

- 1 Every night, the same person follows me as I walk home. I hope she's not hacking/stalking me.
- 2 There was a mugging/shoplifting in town today. A man grabbed a woman's bag while she was shopping.
- 3 It doesn't matter if the stolen item was small. Shoplifting/Bribery is still a crime.
- 4 There was a fire at the internet café last night. The police suspect hacking/arson.
- 5 The rise in bribery/counterfeiting has seen a lot of fake £20 notes in everyday use.
- 6 I can't stand the theft/vandalism in this town. One of our windows was smashed last night.
- 7 That child kidnapping/hacking case is making all the headlines. They're asking for $1m.
- 8 A thirteen-year-old boy's been charged with stalking/hacking into a government database.