GROUP: _____

1. Order dialogues a and b.

a At home

- M I don't feel like watching a movie. Let's go and see the band.
- W It's OK, but I've seen it before. I'll turn it off.
- M So, what do you want to do this evening?
- W Hmm, I don't know. Do you want to go to the movies? Or, there's a band playing.
- M I'm bored with this program, aren't you?

b At the bar

- W No thanks. I'm on an alcohol-free diet.
- M OK, one orange juice coming up.
- W Would you like a drink?
- W Uh, I'd rather have an orange juice, please.
- M Oh. So, how about a Coke?
- M It's OK, I'll get it. Would you like a beer?

3. Read the story and circle the correct word.

I got up in the morning and checked the mail. There were some letters for my parents, but there was nothing / something for me.

I got to work and said "Hi" to my colleagues, but no one / anyone said nothing / anything to me.

At lunch, I went to the cafeteria. It was very busy and there wasn't nowhere / anywhere to sit. I had to wait for someone / anyone to finish his food before I could sit down.

I was a little angry because I never forget anyone's / everyone's birthday and anyone / everyone was ignoring mine, so after work I went to the park to try and relax.

It was a beautiful sunny afternoon, and I tried to find anywhere / somewhere to sit, but it was very crowded and there were people everywhere / somewhere.

After dark, I drove home, but my street was full of cars and there was anywhere / nowhere for me to park my car. What a terrible day! Everything / Anything was going wrong.

I parked my car two streets from my house and walked home. There was anything / something very strange happening, but I didn't know what it was.

I arrived home and when I opened the door, I couldn't believe it. Someone / Everyone was there. It was a surprise birthday party, and they were all waiting for me!
