Name _____ No. ___Class 5/___

Word Families

When you learn a new word in English, it is helpful to also learn words in the same "family" that form the different parts of speech. Since a word can have a slightly different meaning in a different form, learning word families can help you to expand your vocabulary.

A Use a dictionary to complete the chart with the correct noun, verb, and adjective forms.

VERB	ADJECTIVE	NOUN
1. offend	offending/offensive	offense
2.	favored/favorite
3.		experience
4.	imaginative
5. scare
6. concern
7.	suggestive
8. support

B Complete these advertisements with the correct word from the chart.

Shy? Lacking confidence? If the idea of speaking in public (1) _____you, our program will change your life. With (2) _____coaches who will (3) _____ the way, you'll soon overcome your fear.

Here's a(n) (4)_____ for people who (5)_____ the finer things in life-why not try our tailor-made luxury holidays? Sleep in a 5-star tent in Kenya. Swim in marble pools in Morocco. Go on a food tour of Tokyo. The only limit is your (6)_____

If bad breath is your (7) _____ , chew on our new Minty Bits. Try the freshest sweets in town, guaranteed to get rid of (8)_____smells!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Word Families

- Write whether the underlined word is a noun, an adjective or a verb.

noun 1. I don't know what to wear tonight - do you have any suggestions?

_____ 2. Her symptoms are suggestive of a panic disorder.

_____ 3. I suggested an Italian restaurant near the station for the party.

_____ 4. The government's concentration on tax reduction has won them a lot of support.

_____ 5. I think it's important to support local businesses by buying locally.

_____ 6. Children with supportive parents often do better at school than those without.

_____ 7. I think she was offended that she hadn't been invited to the party.

_____ 8. This programme contains language that some viewers might find offensive.

_____ 9. He was charged with the offense of driving without a license.

_____ 10. She used to take her most favoured clients to expensive restaurants.

_____ 11. He sent her presents in an attempt to win her favour.

_____ 12. These are the running shoes favoured by marathon runners.

_____ 13. Do you have any experience of working with kids?

_____ 14. New companies often experience a loss in their first few years.

_____ 15. I don't think he's really experienced enough for this sort of job.

_____ 16. The architects have made imaginative use of glass and transparent plastic.

_____ 17. I can never make up stories - I have absolutely no imagination.

_____ 18. She imagined herself sitting in her favourite chair back home.

_____ 19. She's very brave - she doesn't scare easily.

_____ 20. You gave us a real scare when you fainted, you know.

_____ 21. He's scared to tell her what really happened.

_____ 22. The state of my father's health concerns us greatly.

_____ 23. Concern for the safety of the two missing teenagers is growing.

_____ 24. He was concerned to hear that two of his trusted workers were leaving.

LIVEWORKSHEETS