

Name _____

No. ___ Class 5/___

Word Families

When you learn a new word in English, it is helpful to also learn words in the same "family" that form the different parts of speech. Since a word can have a slightly different meaning in a different form, learning word families can help you to expand your vocabulary.

A Use a dictionary to complete the chart with the correct noun, verb, and adjective forms.

VERB	ADJECTIVE	NOUN
1. offend	offending/offensive	offense
2.	favored/favorite
3.		experience
4.	imaginative
5. scare
6. concern
7.	suggestive
8. support

B Complete these advertisements with the correct word from the chart.

Shy? Lacking confidence? If the idea of speaking in public (1) _____ you, our program will change your life. With (2) _____ coaches who will (3) _____ the way, you'll soon overcome your fear.

Here's a(n) (4) _____ for people who (5) _____ the finer things in life—why not try our tailor-made luxury holidays? Sleep in a 5-star tent in Kenya. Swim in marble pools in Morocco. Go on a food tour of Tokyo. The only limit is your (6)_____.

If bad breath is your (7) _____, chew on our new Minty Bits. Try the freshest sweets in town, guaranteed to get rid of (8) _____ smells!

Word Families

- Write whether the underlined word is a noun, an adjective or a verb.

noun

- I don't know what to wear tonight - do you have any suggestions?
- Her symptoms are suggestive of a panic disorder.
- I suggested an Italian restaurant near the station for the party.
- The government's concentration on tax reduction has won them a lot of support.
- I think it's important to support local businesses by buying locally.
- Children with supportive parents often do better at school than those without.
- I think she was offended that she hadn't been invited to the party.
- This programme contains language that some viewers might find offensive.
- He was charged with the offense of driving without a license.
- She used to take her most favoured clients to expensive restaurants.
- He sent her presents in an attempt to win her favour.
- These are the running shoes favoured by marathon runners.
- Do you have any experience of working with kids?
- New companies often experience a loss in their first few years.
- I don't think he's really experienced enough for this sort of job.
- The architects have made imaginative use of glass and transparent plastic.
- I can never make up stories - I have absolutely no imagination.
- She imagined herself sitting in her favourite chair back home.
- She's very brave - she doesn't scare easily.
- You gave us a real scare when you fainted, you know.
- He's scared to tell her what really happened.
- The state of my father's health concerns us greatly.
- Concern for the safety of the two missing teenagers is growing.
- He was concerned to hear that two of his trusted workers were leaving.

