a Match the questions to the paragraphs.

What language? When? Why? Who? Where?

1 When?

The Eurovision Song Contest takes place in May every year. Before the final competition, people in each country choose the song they want to represent their country.

2 _____

The idea of the contest is to promote pop music from all of the different countries and to give an opportunity to new singers and composers.

3 _____

Only members of the European Broadcasting Union can participate in the competition. Singers don't have to have the nationality of the countries they represent. For example, in 1963 the singer Nana Mouskouri represented Luxembourg, although she is Greek. Since 1986, singers must be over 16, after a 13-year-old from Belgium won the competition the year before.

4 _____

In the first years of Eurovision, only the United Kingdom, Ireland, and Malta could sing in English. Now there are no rules about languages, so groups can sing in their own language or in English if they want to. Today almost all the contestants sing in English.

5 _____

The competition is always in the country where the last year's winner came from. The country with the most winners is Ireland, and many Eurovision singers have become very famous, for example Abba and Julio Iglesias.
