

Name: _____

1. Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. Use between two and six words, including the word in capital letters.

We think the removal company broke several of our glasses in transit.

GOT

We think several of our glasses _____ the removal company while in transit.

There is no access to the stadium after 9 pm every night.

CLOSED

The stadium gates _____ at 9 pm every night.

More and more homeowners are paying specialists to install solar panels.

HAVING

More and more homeowners _____ specialists.

The floods of recent weeks have destroyed hundreds of homes.

BEEN

Hundreds of homes _____ floods in recent weeks.

2. Rewrite these sentences, using the passive form of the underlines reporting verb (as in the example below).

Ex: Doctors believe that the patient died early this morning.

It is believed that the patient died early this morning.

- a. Researchers think that over 75% of road accidents are avoidable.
_____ that over 75% of road accidents are avoidable.
- b. Scientists have shown that people in less stressful jobs live longer.
_____ that people in less stressful jobs live longer.
- c. Some people say that if you dream of fish, someone you know is pregnant.
_____ that if you dream of fish, someone you know is pregnant.

3. Underline the correct word. If both are possible, underline them both.

- a) To whom/ who Should the documents be sent?
- b) Which / Who of you is Dr. Smith? I have a message for you.

- c) Is your sister at home? What/ Which one do you want to speak to?
- d) Who/ Whose is the new sports car outside?
- e) Whom/Which was your best subject at school?
- f) Which/ Who will captain the team if Joel isn't available?
- g) Who/Whom translated the books?

4. Complete the echo questions using appropriate question words or phrases.

- a. Ana's going to Mexico. She's going _____?
- b. I went to Iceland to visit the volcanos. You went _____?
To visit _____?
- c. He had said someone would do something. He had said who would do _____?
- d. We paid $1,000 for the painting. _____ did you pay?
- e. I think she's having a sleep. She's _____?

5. Write four questions: 2 questions where include (that) and 2 questions that omitted (that).
