Last month                      very special. I                      by myself for the first time! I a little nervous but it                      exciting. First, I                      a taxi to the international airport terminal. Then, I                      in at the check-in counter and to the departure lounge at Gate B64. I                      early, so I                      to wait a long time to go through immigration and security. Then, I                      in the departure lounge for about 25 minutes before I                      on the plane. After I the plane, I                      along the aisle and                      my seat. Then I and fastened my seatbelt. I                      lucky because my seat                      a window seat, so I                      look outside as the plane                      off. After a few hours, the flight attendants                      us dinner and then I                      to the passenger next to me. His name                      Eduardo and I                      surprised to find out that he also traveling to Vancouver to study English for the summer.
Finally, I                      an action movie, and then our plane landed soon after that.
I                      a wonderful time in Canada. It                      really fun and I                      lots of new friends from all over the world. Next week, I will fly back to Mexico but I will never forget my time here.
