Chinese pianist Lang Lang gave(1) piano performance at Jungfrauoch,(2) highest railway station in Europe. The artist wished to promote(3) cultural exchanges between China and Europe with music. At a height of 4,158 meters above the sea, Jungfrauoch is(4) famous scenic spot and snow sports resort. It is also(5) important summit of the Bernese Alps in central Switzerland. Lang said it was the first time he had played(6) piano on(7) snowy mountain, and it was a very special experience, despite the challenging low temperature. Lang's interpretation of 'Love dream', 'Jasmine flower', and 'Goldberg variations' won warm applause from(8) audience. Lang specially chose(9) song 'Jasmine flower' in hope the audience would want to learn about Chinese culture through(10) beautiful oriental music.
