

Edgar Allan Poe: The Raven

<https://www.teachersfirst.com/lessons/raven/start.cfm>

Match the quotes with the following literary devices:

alliteration	assonance	consonance	metaphor
personification	repetition		simile

"... an echo murmured back the word..." - _____

"Quoth the Raven, "Nevermore" - _____

"On this Home by Horror haunted" - _____

"a sainted maiden ... a rare and radiant maiden..." - _____

"... he will leave me, as my Hopes have flown before" - _____

"To the fowl whose fiery eyes now burned into" - _____

"... never flitting, still is sitting..." - _____

Poetic devices in The Raven – match the words with the correct option

Stanza: trochaic octameter

Rhyme pattern: “Quoth the Raven, Nevermore”

Rhythm: 6-line

Internal rhyme pattern: ABCBBB

Refrain: AA B CC CB B B

