Last weekend, Harry and his parents went to a small hotel on an (1) in a lake. On Saturday afternoon the hotel cook went by boat to the town to see a friend. But then suddenly a (2) came, with rain and strong winds, and he couldn't sail back to the hotel. At six o'clock everyone in the hotel went to the (3) to have dinner, but it was closed.

"What's the matter?" Harry's mum asked the waiter. "The dinner isn't (4), " he said, "because there is no-one to cook."

So Harry's parents decided to do something. They went into the kitchen where they looked in the (5) and in the cupboards. They found some flour, tomatoes, (6), cheese and vegetables. Dad made pizzas and Mum (7) the vegetables into small pieces for a salad.

"That smells good," said the waiter. Harry ate a piece of pizza. "And it tastes very good!" he said. Everyone loved the dinner and thanked Harry's parents.

Paul's class at school are studying castles in history. So last week their history teacher, Mr. Park, took them to visit an old castle on a hill next to the sea. They went by bus and stopped at the bottom of the hill. Mr. Park pointed to the castle at the top of the hill and said, "There is no road up there so we have to walk." The children were tired and thirsty when they arrived at the castle. But Mr. Park had juice for all of them. It was very interesting because Mr. Park showed them all the different parts of the castle and explained its history. On the way down the hill Paul's friends said, "Let's have a race." So, Paul and his friends started to run. "Stop running!" shouted Mr. Park. But the boys ran faster and faster and then Paul fell over and hurt his leg. It wasn't broken, but he couldn't walk very well. Mr. Park saw a farmer on his horse in a field. He went to speak to him and the farmer let Paul ride his big brown horse down the hill to the bus. "Sorry we didn't listen to you on the hill," Paul said to Mr. Park, "but we listened in the castle. It was great! Can we come again?"
