LINA's Story

Lina came from Italy with her parents three years ago. She was in grade 8 when they moved to Ontario. She had excellent marks in grade 9 and grade 10. She has just started grade 11, and next week her mother will attend her first parent-teacher meeting of the school year. Lina's parents are very proud of her high grades, but she worries that Lina is spending all of her free time studying. Her parents think that Lina should join some clubs at school or play a sport. What can her parents ask the teacher?
