ESL Unit 6 Vocabulary Practice

Use the words in the box below this line to fill in the information that is missing.

fables	comic	family stories	proverb	Aboriginal
clay	charcoal	setting	characters	problem
resolution	soil	bark	anecdote	picture books
		fairy tales	novels

	Where things in the story start to go wrong.
	The ending of the story.
	A long story, often published in a book.
	Stories told to children with a happy ending.
	A short story based on a real event.
	The hard, rough part of a tree.
	Stories passed down from parents to their children
	Another word for dirt.
	The people (or animals) in the story.
	Where the story happens.
	Stories with a moral and characters who are animals.
	A graphic book based on pictures with very few words.
	A soft, orange/brown material made from the ground. It is tough and rough when dry.
	The original settlers of Australia; one of the oldest civilisations still on Earth.
	A book that is mostly pictures; we often give these to very young children and babies.

LIVEWORKSHEETS