HAPPY 25TH OF MAY!

In 1810, when the May Revolution happened, supermarkets did not exist. People bought products from street vendors, called "peddlers" or "pedlars." Peddlers offered fresh products that they produced on their own, and they went around the village on foot, riding a horse or on a carriage.

Match the peddlers to what they sell. Practice the pronunciation and

BROOMS

WATER

MILK

SWEET "PASTELITOS"

"EMPANADAS" (OR PASTIES)

CANDLES