So we stopped at a service station and <sup>8</sup> _____ for directions, and of course we were on the wrong road. Hi there Simon,

Just a quick email about arrangements for Saturday. The match starts at five, so shall we get to the stadium around four? There are sometimes big <sup>1</sup>qu_____ to get in so it's good to arrive early. Don't drive there – it's almost impossible to <sup>2</sup>pa_____. The easiest way to go is to take the <sup>3</sup>und_____. Donostia is the nearest station to the football <sup>4</sup>gr_____. It's on the red <sup>5</sup>li_____. When you come out of the station, you'll see a big department store on the <sup>6</sup>ma_____ road. Go past the store and <sup>7</sup>ke_____ going along that road until you come to a square with a big <sup>8</sup>mo_____ in the middle of it. You can't <sup>9</sup>mi_____ it. Let's meet there at four. It's five minutes' walk from there.

After the match, shall we go for something to eat? There's a really nice Mexican place near there. The food's <sup>10</sup>de_____, the <sup>11</sup>po_____ are big and it's great <sup>12</sup>va_____. It's the perfect place to go after a game.
