

1

Complete the sentences with the correct form of have to and the verbs in the box.

brush go ✓ not go not use not wear see

- 1 Jane has got the flu. She to bed.
- 2 It's Saturday. I to school. Hurray!
- 3 Fred ate an ice cream. He his teeth, but he can't find his toothbrush!
- 4 Don't worry about wet hair. It's hot today! You the hairdryer before you go out.
- 5 It's warm and sunny today. We coats.
- 6 George has got a stomachache. He a doctor. He can't play football today.

2

Complete the dialogue with the correct form of have to and the verbs.

Poppy: Emma, is that you? I can't hear you. You (speak) louder.

Emma: Yes, it's me. I've got a sore throat. That's why I didn't go to school. I think I (drink) some more tea.

Poppy: Oh dear. (you / see) a doctor?

Emma: No, I don't. It's not really bad.

Poppy: OK. I'm phoning because we (do) a French test on Wednesday. It's on Friday now. Our teacher told us at school today.

Emma: That's good news. I (learn) the new words on Tuesday. I can wait until Thursday.

Poppy: I've got some more news. There's a new boy in our class. He's French.

Emma: He's lucky! He (not do) anything for the French test.

Poppy: Ha ha! That's true! His French is perfect!

