

We use so.....that.... when we talk about the result of something. We use so before an adjective or adverb.

- The house was so expensive that my father couldn't buy it.
- The book was so interesting that I wanted to read it again.
- Türkiye is so beautiful that thousands of tourists visit every year.

We use such.... that.... with adjective + noun.

- He is such a good boy that everybody likes him.
- They are such interesting animals that everybody wants to see them.
- She is such a careless student that she makes a lot of mistakes.

A. Combine the following sentences, using so.... that....

- Selen walks very fast. I can't keep up with her.
.....
- Sheila's car was too old. She couldn't sell it.
.....
- It is very hot today. Everybody is going to the beach.
.....
- I am very tired. I can't move my finger.
.....
- The road was too icy. They waited more than two hours.
.....
- Marian is very boring. I can't stand listening to her.
.....
- The exercises were too difficult. Nobody could do them.
.....
- The wind was very strong. They canceled the horse race.
.....

B. Combine the following sentences using such.....that....

- Leyla had a very heavy suitcase. She couldn't carry it.
.....
- It was an exciting party. We enjoyed it very much.
.....
- Mr. Wells is a very intelligent man. He can speak seven languages.
.....
- Mount Ararat is a very high mountain. It is very difficult to climb on.
.....
- Norma is a very attractive girl. Everybody admires her.
.....
- It is an interesting film. You would like to watch it.
.....

C. Choose the correct word

- The bus was so/such packed with people that we had to wait for the next one.
- The soldier showed so/such bravery that he was given a medal.
- My cousin has been so/such a perfect student at school that all the teachers admire her.
- There were such/so few mistakes on the exam paper that we used it as the answer key.
- The Princess in the fairy tale is so/such that all the young men want to marry her.

D. Fill in the blanks with so/such/such a/an

- After the birthday party the house was in _____ mess that it took almost two days to clean it afterwards.
- When I went shopping, I bought _____ many things that I am not planning to buy anything for the next few months.
- No one could finish the meal in their plates as I put _____ lot of salt in it that it tasted horrible.
- The lady with the purple hat looks _____ ridiculous that the children and adults alike sneer at her.