Both means "one and the other"

We use both.....and..... to emphasize a combination of two nouns, etc.

a. Both Roger and Molly are successful students.
b. Both Billy and Tim can speak Turkish.
c. Both Oscar and Arthur can drive well.
d. Both hotels are very good.
e. Both James and Peter were late yesterday.

Neither means 'not one and not the other. It is used in a positive structure but the meaning is negative.

.Neither team played well.
a. Neither of the boys wanted to go to the match.
b. Neither of the restaurants were expensive.
c. Neither of the children wants to go to bed early.

Write sentences about yourself and the people you know. You can use any of the tenses you have learned up till now. Use both.....and, neither, both.

1......Mr. Eren..... Mrs. Eren came to the party. We are very pleased.
2......of the students were hardworking. They got low marks.
3......of us is married. We are very young and it is very early for us.
4......Peter and Marry were at the party. They enjoyed the party very much.
5......of us were very tired. We went to bed early.
6......of the motels (was) were expensive. They were very economical.
7......of us liked Baklava very much. We finished all of it.
8......drivers got out and started shouting at each other.
9......Tim and I could repair the car. It is ready now.
10......Birsen and I have been to MARMARİS. It is a very nice town.
11......of us have been to Miami. Next year we are going to visit there for the first time.
12. Is she American or Canadian? .....she is British.
13......the clothes were cheap. She couldn't buy any of them.
14. James and Harry were.....sorry because their friend's mother died.
15......Dick and Jim recognized the thief. The police took him to the prison

We use either.... and or to indicate that there is more than one possibility or alternative. When we use either.... or.... we indicate that one or the other available action is possible but not both.

a. Either come here or go there.
b. Either study your lessons or go to your bed.
c. You may either do your homework or listen to the music.
d. We will either go fishing or stay at home.
e. The journalist will have an interview either with the president or the prime minister

Combine the following sentences by using either.....or..... .

1.We can go on a picnic. We can play football.
2.We are going to study maths or we are going to study physics.
3.Dick will visit his uncle or he will visit his aunt.
4.Jim is going to read a magazine or he is going to write a letter.
5.Andrew is going to visit Texas or Jim is going to visit Texas.

LIVEWORKSHEETS