

BOOKS AND DOCUMENTS

1. Look at the letters of the Roman alphabet and answer.

Which letters didn't the Romans have?

2. Choose true or false.

- A source gives us information.
True False
- There's only one alphabet in history.
True False
- Our alphabet comes from the Roman alphabet.
True False
- The Egyptians didn't have an alphabet.
True False
- We can't find out how people lived from books.
True False

3. Match the beginning to the end of each line of the chant.

- | | |
|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| a) What can we read ... | 1. of what people knew. |
| b) Documents ... | 2. and letters too. |
| c) Posters and books ... | 3. about history? |
| d) What can they tell ... | 4. and what they did. |
| e) Important events ... | 5. about history? |
| f) Important people ... | 6. and how people lived. |
| g) And don't forget ... | 7. what we're reading now. |
| h) Is the history ... | 8. historians will say? |
| i) What do you think ... | 9. of our life today |

4. Answer the questions.

a) What's the name of a person who writes about history?

b) What types of written sources are in the chant?

c) What do we call the period before there were written sources?

d) What things in history does the chant say we can find out?

5. Label the alphabets

Roman

Greek

Egyptian

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____