

Woodrow Wilson's Tie (pages 54-58)

Choose True, False or Doesn't Say.

1. Madame Thibault's Hall of Waxworks was the main attraction in the area.
2. As soon as he left school, Clive got a job in a supermarket.
3. He visited the Waxworks whenever he had a chance.
4. Admission to the Hall was free.
5. As you entered the main hall, you would find figures that would make your hair stand on end.
6. Clive was far from being frightened – he found the figures amusing.
7. One evening Clive got unintentionally locked up in the Hall.
8. Five people worked at the Hall.
9. Clive took and kept the money from the moneybox in the desk drawer.
10. He took President Wilson's tie as a souvenir of his visit.
11. In the evening Clive told his mother about his adventure.
12. Soon he lost interest in what he had done.
13. Eventually he returned Woodrow Wilson's tie.
14. He decided to steal one of the keys and a whole wax figure.
15. With this intent, he was forced to kill the workers at the Hall.
16. Then he replaced the wax figures by the dead bodies of his victims.