

Questions:

1. The author believes _____ to improve classrooms
 - a. There weren't enough materials available
 - b. Schools didn't have enough money
 - c. Teachers didn't care enough

2. What is the main point in paragraph 1?
 - a. The way classrooms have improved in recent times
 - b. The attitudes teachers had to teaching and learning
 - c. The amount of money given to schools by the government

3. The author thinks that teachers today are struggling to _____
 - a. Deal with students' behavior
 - b. Live off a low salary
 - c. Keep up with the workload

4. The article says, the main job of robot teachers will be _____.
 - a. Collecting information
 - b. Teaching the students
 - c. Calculating results

5. Parents were worried because robot teachers _____.
 - a. Might not improve IT skills
 - b. Will reduce overall standards

c. Cannot have human relationships

6. Educational professionals think robot teachers will

a. Not bring any positive changes

b. Give time for individual feedback to students

c. Allow teachers to work alone with students

7. How does the writer's attitude change from the beginning to the end of the text?

a. He was positive then worried

b. He was scared and then hopeful

c. He was excited and then disappointed