

Activity 1 - Reading Comprehension

Narrative Text

Malin Kundang

Once upon a time, there lived a poor woman with her only son named Malin Kundang. Malin Kundang was a good and obedient child. His mother worked as fisherman. However, their income was not sufficient for their daily needs so they lived in poverty.

When Malin Kundang grew up, he decided to migrate to the city. He wanted to change his life there. With a heavy heart, his mother allowed it. After Malin left, his mother lived lonely and sickly. Meanwhile, Malin never sent a letter.

Until several years, Malin managed to change his destiny. He has become a wealthy merchant. He also married a beautiful noblewoman.

One day, Malin returned to his village. His mother was very happy to hear the news. His mother rushed to the pier to meet her son. But, it turned out that Malin didn't want to acknowledge his mother and instead kick her until she fell on the sand. His wife was shocked and could not believe her husband's real character.

Because his mother felt very hurt, she begged God to give justice. Suddenly the sky darkened, the rain fell very heavily and lightning flashed. At that time Malin also turned into stone.

Activity 2 - Match the paragraph with its correct generic structure

Once upon a time, there lived a poor woman with her only son named Malin Kundang. Malin Kundang was a good and obedient child. His mother worked as fisherman. However, their income was not sufficient for their daily needs so they lived in poverty.

Resolution

When Malin Kundang grew up, he decided to migrate to the city. He wanted to change his life there. With a heavy heart, his mother allowed it. After Malin left, his mother lived lonely and sickly.

Until several years, Malin managed to change his destiny. He has become a wealthy merchant. He also married a beautiful noblewoman.

Orientation

One day, Malin returned to his village. His mother was very happy to hear the news. His mother rushed to the pier to meet her son. But, it turned out that Malin didn't want to acknowledge his mother and instead kick her until she fell on the sand. His wife was shocked and could not believe her husband's real character.

Complication

Because his mother felt very hurt, she begged God to give justice. Suddenly later the sky darkened, the rain fell very heavily and lightning flashed. At that time Malin also turned into stone

Activity 3 - In the task, you should determine the grammar language feature of the text.

Grammar and Language Feature	Examples in this text	Meaning
Use of past tense
Use of adverb of time
Use of time conjunction

Name: _____

Class: _____

Narrative Writing

Direction: Write a narrative that includes each part of plot listed below!

Title
Begining of the story
Rising action
Climax
Falling action and resolution	