GRAMMAR

1 Read the dialogue. Choose the correct alternative.

Alice: Hi Mary, how's things?

Mary: I'm good thanks. Actually more than good. I (a) just had/have just had a really great piece of news.

Alice: Why, what (b) happened/has happened?

Mary: Well, a couple of months ago, I (c) applied/have applied to do a holiday job on a farm in Montana, and they (d) just offered/have just offered me the job! I had an email from them yesterday.

Alice: That's amazing.

Mary: Now I'm sort of nervous because I've got to organise things like plane tickets and visas and things. I (e) never did/have never done anything like that before. And I don't really know anything about America.
(f) Did you ever go/Have you ever been there?

Alice: No, not yet – but I'm hoping to. You remember my cousin Emily?

Mary: Oh yes, of course. She's lived in America (g) for/since years, hasn't she?

Alice: Yes, that's right. I'm sure she'd be happy to give you advice and help if you need it.
