

Types of Businesses

Instructions: Match the terms in column A to the correct definitions in column B by writing the correct capital letter on the line. A letter may be used once, more than once, or not at all.

Column A	Column B
A. Sole Trader	1. _____ a business based on selling products that belong to a parent company.
B. Partnership	2. _____ a business that has limited liability and who sells stocks to the general public.
C. Public Limited Companies	3. _____ a business that is formed by two companies working together sharing capital and profits.
D. Private Limited Companies	4. _____ a business with one owner.
E. Cooperatives	5. _____ a business that has a director who is also a majority shareholder.
F. Franchises	6. _____ a business that is ran by volunteers and donations.
G. Joint Venture	7. _____ a business that has three owners that share profits.
	8. _____ a business that is ran by a group of persons who work together voluntarily toward a common goal of creating a better community/world.