

The Kitchen

i. Read the text and complete it with the missing words.

a) choose the correct article to complete the statements.

b) fill in the gaps with one of the verbs in the first list and one of the particles in the second.

MIX / TRY / CLEAN / CHOP / HEAT / PUT / MESS / EAT

OUT / UP (6x) / TOGETHER

How to make a spicy chicken casserole

There are many ways to make a chicken casserole, and I've _____ many of them _____, but the one my kids love the most is this one. It's simple and you can _____ it _____ with things you have in your fridge.

First, _____ the chicken and vegetables -any vegetables you have available, with _____ sharp knife. When you've done this, _____ some tomato, garlic and chili sauce in _____ bowl (while you're doing this, try not to _____ kitchen too much: it's _____ excellent idea to _____ as you go).

Next, _____ everything _____ in _____ small saucepan. When _____ meat and vegetables have cooked, serve the casserole with _____ rice, _____ pasta or _____ bread and _____ !

Write the verbs in the correct form and tense according to the context.

ii. There's one error in each of the following statements. Read each sentence carefully, spot the error and correct it. Rewrite the sentences in the correct way.

 Use capital letters and contractions but don't use punctuation marks.

1) I can't find nothing in the fridge! Could you tidy it up, please?

_____! Could you tidy it up, please?

2) What a mess! There's milkshake somewhere! I can't believe you forgot to put the lid on.

What a mess! _____! I can't believe you forgot to put the lid on.

3) I don't know which plate is mine because anybody's mixed them up.

I don't know which plate is mine because _____.

4) Without a blender, we won't be able to prepare something from this menu. All the dishes require a blender.

Without a blender, _____. All the dishes require a blender.

5) I want to try out a recipe I found on the internet but I haven't gotten something yet. I need to buy two more things and then I'll be ready.

I want to try out a recipe I found on the internet but _____. I need to buy two more things and then I'll be ready.

6) I had everything for breakfast this morning and I'm starving. I could eat a horse!

_____ and I'm starving. I could eat a horse!

