Name:	Date:

READING COMPREHENSION POINT OF VIEW (POV)

Instructions: Read each paragraph. Decide whether it is written in first-person, third-person limited, or third-person omniscient point of view. Then tell how you know

To be	person omniscient point o know.	f view. Then tell how you order to win the upcoming ma wanted to win because it woo a lot to him. But Mark wanted	arathon, they would have to pro uld be his last marathon before I to win because he wanted to jo	ing in the park. They knew that in actice running longer distances. Jim heading to college. It would mean oin the City's Marathon League. He ling for new runners. They both felt this paragraph?). third-person limited	(c). third-person omniscient forfeit going to games and pa the summer. However, this su cousins. She struggled with the	arties just to stay home and stud ummer she had an opportunity the he thought of doing summer cla	er grades up. Sometimes she would dy. She even went to classes during to go to Paris with her aunt and two esses or going. After finding out that r family, and continue classes when
What is the point of view of (a). first-person (b) How do you know?	this paragraph?). third-person limited	(c). third-person omniscient
I always beat my brother and commercial for Zoom Racer's	d father when we play. While we came on. In the commercial it so tter how long that line is going	o come out. It is the best game ever! watching TV last week Tuesday, the aid that Zoom Racers will be coming to be, I am determined to be there.
* 00 * 5-200.00 to 10 1 * 00 anatomorphisms. (#900.00	this paragraph? . third-person limited	(c). third-person omniscient