

Short story

About what I do in my day

I usually get up at 4O'clock in the morning. First, I go to the bathroom to brush my teeth and prepare for morning pray. Next, I have my breakfast witch content of a cup of tea with cake, that is all we have in the morning as our family breakfast. After that I put on my clothes school and go to school on foot because its not so far from my house. at school we have different subjects such as math, science, English and Arabic. after we finish from school I go back home and I wait for my family to be all at home then we have our lunch and go to sleep.
