

There was a race on the farm! Help the donkey finish the story. Complete with the verbs in the PAST SIMPLE form.

One day, a big and beautiful horse was telling other animals on the farm how fast he could run. Then he challenged an old donkey to race. The donkey looked at him and (1) SAID (SAY) : "Ok, I'll race you". All the animals  (LAUGH) at the poor donkey.

It  (BE) a hot day. They  (BEGIN) running. The horse

(RUN) fast and disappeared in the fields. The donkey was slower but he walked quickly. After some minutes, the horse was so tired that he decided to take a rest. So he  (FALL) asleep. Fifteen minutes later, he  (WAKE) up. He  (THINK) that the donkey was still behind him, but when he looked back, the donkey  (BE) not there. Then he  (SEE) that the donkey was near the finish line. Suddenly, he  (WAKE) up and started running fast. He  (RUN) as fast as he could but the donkey crossed the finish line. The donkey  (WIN) the race!

The horse  (BE) so unhappy that the donkey came closer and  (TELL) him: "Don't be sad. You are faster than me, but you are not smarter".

The horse  (SAY): "I'm sorry. I'll never challenge you again or any other animal."

At night, they  (HAVE) a feast. They  (EAT) grass and  (DRINK) water. In the end, the horse and the donkey  (BECOME) friends.

