(Reading passage:3)

Read the email and answer the questions.

Dear Hessa,

Welcome to our class. I am writing to tell you about our school, our teachers, and the principle.

Ms. Mariam is the principle. She is often busy, but she always tells us that learning languages is very important. So, whenever you meet to her, you can't speak Arabic.

Ms. Fatimah is our Islamic teacher, and Ms. Maisoon is the Arabic teacher. You have to stand up and greet them with "As-Salaam Alaikum" when they enter the class. You can't sit down until they say it's okay. If you don't stand up for Ms. Maisoon, you get more pages to copy at home.

The math teacher, Ms. Khadijah, is different. She wants us to always be quiet in class. So, we keep sitting from the first to the last minute of her lesson.

Ms. Jenny is our English teacher. We don't stand up for her, but we have to greet her with "Good morning" or "Good afternoon" as she enters the room. If you speak Arabic in her class, she puts you in the front to tell the class a story in English.

I have to do my homework now. See you tomorrow!

Your new friend,

Amna
