1.	not speak during their partner's long turn
2.	give basic personal information
3.	express and justify opinions
4.	discuss further and broaden the topics introduced in the previous part
5.	express and justify opinions
6.	show ability to hold a conversation
7.	respond to a written stimulus which forms the basis for a discussion
8.	show ability to produce an extended piece of discourse
9.	show ability to use general social and interactional language
10.	answer questions asking primarily for an evaluation rather than for information
11.	speculate in order to have a conversation which answers the discussion question
12.	agree and/or disagree
13.	show ability to invite the opinions and ideas of their partner
14.	express themselves coherently with appropriate language
15.	answer questions related to the candidates' own lives and focus on areas such as work, leisure time and future plans
16.	show that candidates are capable of discussing issues in more depth than in the earlier parts of the test
17.	turn-take appropriately
18.	agree and/or disagree
19.	compare, describe and express opinions
20.	work towards a negotiated decision
21.	speculate
22.	summarise discussion
23.	respond to the interlocutor's questions, and to listen to what their partner has to say
24.	answer the question by exploring the different prompts
25.	initiate and respond appropriately
26.	comment (for about 30 seconds)
27.	evaluate
28.	show ability to organise thoughts and ideas
29.	continue discussion until asked to stop by the interlocutor
30.	use the language of negotiation and collaboration

LIVEWORKSHEETS