New York. What do you think of? Skyscrapers. Taxis. Noise. People. John Lennon said that New York is the capital city of the 1)_____– and it certainly feels that way.

But in the centre of this exciting, noisy, polluted city there is a place to find 2) _____ and quiet. A short walk from busy Fifth 3) _____ in Manhattan you'll find Central Park. Central Park is the green 4) _____ of New York City and over 25 million people come here each year to 5) _____ the city. People run, swim, 6) _____ or simply sit and read a book in the huge park's different scenery. And it's not just for people. Lots of 7) _____ birds have made their home in the park and there are legends of big 8) _____ hiding in the dark trees.

Although it looks completely 9) _____, the park is man- made, created over 150 years ago. Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux designed the park at a time when the city was a very crowded, dirty and 10) _____ place to live. They wanted to make a place where rich and 11) _____ people could find fresh 12) _____ in the dirty city.
It does the same job today. As a friend of mine always tells me, "Life in New York would be impossible without Central Park"
