

ACTIVITIES

1. Complete the chart:

Climate zone	Typical climate	Typical vegetation	Example country temperate hot cold

tundra Iceland none (ninguno) forest Kenya woodland grassland cold temperature France lots of rain high temperature lots of snow

2. Write W (weather) or C (climate).

- ☐ It is sunny and windy today. I hope it's better tomorrow.
- ☐ It is always cold at the North and the South poles.
- ☐ We had less rain than expected this month.
- ☐ Thousands of years ago, the Sahara Desert area was green and fertile.
- ☐ Temperatures are mild all year round on the Mediterranean coast.

3. Complete:

World climate zones are based on several factors:

The amount of _____ the zone receives from the _____.

The distance of the zone from the _____. The location: for example, in the mountains or on the _____.

coast Sun heat Equator