

PAST SIMPLE- PAST CONTINUOUS REVIEW

Past actions and situations

We use the past continuous

- to describe an action or situation happening at or around a time in the past:
I wasn't feeling well that day, so I didn't go out with the others.
- for temporary past situations:
We were living in Beijing at the time of the 2008 Olympics. (We don't live there now.)
- for two actions/situations happening at the same time:
While Rob was playing his match, I was waiting in the car outside.

As with the present continuous (► Unit 28.2), we can use the past continuous to criticise another person's actions, often with always:

Karla was always complaining about something or other.

Interrupted actions

We use the past continuous and the past simple together to show that one action (past simple) interrupts another action (past continuous):

The bus was going too fast

*and it hit the car.
(The continuous action stops.)*

We were having dinner

*when she arrived.
(The continuous action doesn't stop.)*

Background situations

We often use the past continuous to describe a 'background' situation in the past:
When we arrived at the beach, the sun wasn't shining.

We also use the past continuous to 'set the scene' for a story or account of something that happened; the actions that follow are in the past simple: Dana was living in Istanbul that summer. Isik was working at the same school as her. As soon as they met, they immediately got on with each other ...

We don't usually use continuous forms of state verbs (e.g. like, see, hear, think, agree).
