

1 Listen to the story

Today is the big day! The girls are packing for a camping trip. Their monitor Jill, says, 'It's time to go!' Josey asks, 'Can Rusty come with us?' Jill shakes her head, 'Sorry! No dogs on this camping trip!'

Jill and the girls go hiking in the forest. They walk past very tall trees and beautiful fields. They see birds, squirrels and rabbits. Matty suddenly stops and points at some bushes 'Look! There's a fox behind that bush!'

Matty and Jill put up the tent. Josey and Ava look for wood. Jill warns them, 'Be careful! There are big bears in the forest. Don't leave food out. Don't go out alone and always keep close to camp!'

The sun goes down and it gets dark. Jill and the girls eat sandwiches for dinner. Then they sit around the fire and tell stories. Jill says, 'It was a dark night and there was an old lady alone in the forest. She was very scared...'

Suddenly, Jill stops telling the story. Shh... What was that? Jill and the girls listen closely. They hear a strange noise in the forest. The girls sit closer together. Jill turns on her torch

Something is running towards them. Is it a fox? Is it a bear? The girls are very scared. Jill stands up and tries to see what's out there. She shines her torch at the trees in the direction of the noise. She cannot see anything.

The noise is getting louder. Jill says, 'Girls, go to the tent right now!' The girls stand up and start running towards the tent. Suddenly, a large ball of black fur rushes out of the trees. Whoosh! The girls scream!

Jill shines her torch on the creature and starts to laugh. The girls turn around and look. They start to laugh, too. It's Rusty, the camp dog! He wants to come camping, too!
