

READING AND LISTENING

Complete the sentences with Kim or Dan.

- a _____ was not familiar with people at the party.
- b _____ felt not well-dressed close to _____.
- c _____ felt bad because he/she could not remember _____'s name.
- d _____ likes to spend time with the family.
- e _____ is expecting a phone call.

Listen to Kim and Dan talking about their relationship one year later. Fill in the gaps

Kim: After that party I got _____ with Dan and suggested a _____ ride. We had _____ although he cycled very _____ and I could hardly keep up with him! We _____ for a drink afterwards as I was too _____! He contacted me again a _____ later to ask me to the _____ but I _____ my _____ that weekend so I couldn't make it. We've been trying to arrange another date, but it's been _____. I've relocated to _____ because of my _____, so we're a long way from each other. Also, he's been on his own for a long time. I'm not sure he's ready to _____ his life.

Dan: I was really pleased when Kim got in touch after the party. She had said that she enjoyed _____ but when we went out on our bikes she _____ seem very _____. In fact, she seemed to be a bit _____ with me at the end—I don't know why. We tried to arrange another date, but I don't think she wanted to. And of course, she's in _____ now. Kim _____ very hard, and _____ left.

Listen again and read. Write true or false

- a) Kim was happy that Dan cycled too fast on the bike ride.
- b) Kim has been relocated to San Francisco.
- c) Dan doesn't think Kim is interested.
- d) Dan thinks Kim's more interested in travel more.