

Exercise 4

Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. Generally speaking, most print newspapers are/is/was read by people over 60 years old.
2. It can be /been/to be noticed immediately that people over 80 are the biggest readers of newspapers of all the age groups shown in the chart.
3. Overall, the fact that only a small number of offline news readers are teenagers in this country are/is/were very noticeable.
4. The same proportion of paper-based news publications is be/been/being read by those in their twenties and thirties and those in their forties and fifties.
5. A quarter of the print newspaper readership are/being/is shown to be made up of people in the 60 to 79 age group.