

Markets in Hong Kong

Every day is a market day in Hong Kong. People in Hong Kong like to have very fresh food so they go to market two times every day. Markets in Hong Kong are very busy and noisy because there are lots of people. The markets are very colourful.

In a Hong Kong markets there are many kinds of green vegetables. They are very healthy. There are also many kinds of fruit and thousands of ducks from China, and lots of fish.

Leeds Market in England

Leeds Market is in the north of England. It was built in 1857.

In the old part of Leeds Market, people sell sweets, biscuits, jewellery and material from China.

In the new part of Leeds Market people sell cheap toys, music CDs and plastic shoes. You can also buy cheap food, fruit and vegetables and some very good bread.

Leeds Market is very busy and noisy because there are lots of people.

Read and tick (✓) yes or no.

	yes	no
Both markets sell vegetables.
Leeds Market is quiet.
Leeds Market has an old part and a new part.
Both markets sell fish.
People go to markets in Hong Kong two times every day.
Markets in Hong Kong sell cows.
Leeds Market sells ducks.
Leeds Market was built in 1857.
You can buy jewellery in Leeds Market.
Lots of people go to both markets.
You can buy shoes in the old part of Leeds Market.
You can buy material from China in Leeds Market.

Read and write short answers.

Leeds Market

1. What part of the UK is Leeds market in?
.....
2. What food do people sell in the old part of the market?
.....
3. Where does the material sold in the old part of the market come from?
.....
4. Why is Leeds Market so busy and noisy?
.....
5. What can you buy in new part of the market?
.....

Markets in Hong Kong

6. How often do people on Hong Kong go to markets?
.....

7. Why do people like going to markets in Hong Kong?
.....
8. What three adjectives describe Hong Kong markets?
.....
9. What kinds of things can you buy in Hong Kong markets?
.....
10. What kind of animal can you find in a Hong Kong market?
.....

Match the words with the pictures.

ducks

vegetables

people

fruit

market

fish

Read and finish the sentences.

1. People in Hong Kong like to have very fresh
2. Markets in Hong Kong are veryand
3. The are very colourful.
4. There are many kinds of vegetables.
5. They are healthy.