

INVERTEBRATES

PART 2

Here starts
the lesson!

MOLLUSCS

- _____ bodies.
- _____ to protect their bodies.
- Aquatic or terrestrial
- Oviparous.
- _____ hatch from eggs.
- Many different types of molluscs with different characteristics:

Mussel

Octopus

Clams

Squids

- ----- shells
- Aquatic
- Mussels, oysters and clams

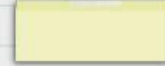

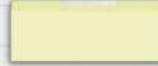

Oyster

Scallop

----- and -----

- Terrestrial and aquatic
- ----- have got a simple spiral
- ----- haven't got a shell

Octopuses, ----- and cuttlefish

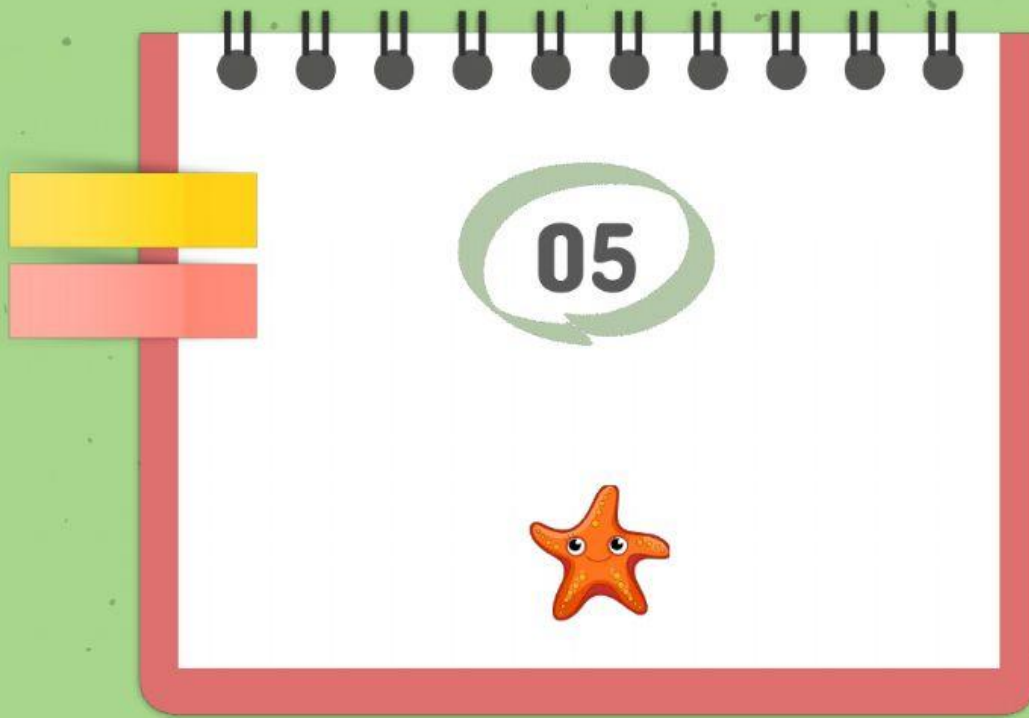

- They have got ----- with suction caps for hunting prey

Octopus

Cuttlefish

ECHINODERMS

- _____ made of hard _____, often with spines
- Marine animals
- _____ have got five _____, called _____.
- _____ have got _____ to move with and _____ their bodies

ARTHROPODS

- Articulated _____
- They have got legs and a _____ body
- There are different groups of arthropods: insects, crustaceans, myriapods and arachnids.

INSECTS

- _____ legs
- _____ antennae
- Wings
- Their bodies are divided into 3 parts:
 1. The _____
 2. The _____
 3. The _____
- _____

ARACHNIDS

- ____ legs
- They haven't got ____.
- ____ and ____

CRUSTACEANS

- ____ exoskeleton
- They have ____
- ____ legs
- Most are marine animals, but there are also terrestrial crustaceans.
- ____ or woodlice are crustaceans

